

Aquaculture Research Group

- Development of vaccines for cold and warm water aquaculture fish species
- Salmon, Rainbow trout, Tilapia, Seabass, Seabream, Cleaner fish
- Complex gill disease research
- Challenge model development
- Viral, bacterial and parasitic pathogen identification
- Immunology studies
- Alternative therapies for disease control

We work on a range of collaborative research projects, please get in touch to find out more about how we can support you:

Dr Kim Thompson
Principal Investigator Aquaculture Research Group.
MoreDun Research Institute
kim.thompson@moredun.ac.uk

The MoreDun Research Institute conducts world class scientific research to improve livestock and aquaculture health and welfare through the prevention and control of infectious disease. The Institute is based near Edinburgh in Scotland.

www.moredun.org.uk

